

The Board believes appropriate use of procurement cards is a customary and economical practice to improve cash management, reduce costs and increase efficiency.