

(b) Secondary Schools

Principals are to send home a notice at the beginning of each school year to advise parents:

- (i) to listen to one of the radio stations listed annually for information about school closures;

Note: For special needs secondary school students, Principals should follow the procedure listed above under (a) Elementary School.